

Groups and variables

The report we want to generate calculates the totals, averages and max of cargo weights by country, region and city.

We will implement this report based on groups and variables.

We would like to generate this report with two layouts:

- The first layout will use the group bottom sections
- The second will use the headers

The expected results are provided in PDF format.